Your Wedding on the Web

Tiger Eye offers you the option of placing your entire wedding proof book on our Web site. This offers family, friends and out-of-town guests an opportunity to view and/or purchase photos.

On our site you will find wedding galleries in a variety of settings, including indoor, outdoor, traditional and modern.

Photojournalism

Wedding photography includes more than just the traditional portraits. More than ever, couples request candid photojournalistic images. Few photographers have more experience in this profession than Bill Wolf, a photojournalist since 1992.
